

Who are we?—

The Amar Jyoti Story

The Amar Jyoti Charitable Trust was founded as a voluntary organisation in 1981. The centre was established to realize the vision of a society in which the disabled are accepted, empowered and integrated.

For the past 28 years Amar Jyoti has changed the lives of people with many different forms of disability. Using a holistic approach to provide a wide range of rehabilitative services, Amar Jyoti reaches out to over 30,000 people every year.

What do we do?—

At a Glance

Education

- o The Amar Jyoti School has adopted a policy where educational, sporting and cultural activities integrate both disabled and able-bodied groups.
- o Amar Jyoti has branches in both Delhi and in Gwalior, catering for over 700 students from nursery to class VIII.
- o Amar Jyoti offers a wide range of academic courses, including a Bachelor of Physiotherapy Degree, affiliated to University of Delhi, and a certificate course in special and inclusive education, affiliated to Roehampton University, London, UK.

Vocational training

- o Amar Jyoti offers vocational training in carpentry, computing, electronics, textile design and weaving, tailoring and cutting, arts and crafts, jewellery making, beauty culture and baking.
- o The vocational department classes give training to disabled and able-bodied students, providing them with the skills to become financially self-reliant.

Make a Difference

By purchasing products from Amar Jyoti you are not only taking home something that is beautifully crafted but also supporting a beautiful cause. You are playing a vital role in alleviating the difficulties faced by the disabled.

All the products displayed in this catalogue have been made in our vocational departments by professionals and students that they teach, in an integrated environment.

The vocational courses provide students with the indispensable opportunity to acquire specialized skills that they can then apply in future employment.

Your involvement in the promotion of Amar Jyoti's products will go a long way in giving opportunities for a life of equality and dignity to persons with disability.
